Transport:

- Tinnitus Center at Charité University Hospital is located close to the Central railway and metro station (Berliner Hauptbahnhof) and close to another railway and metro station Bahnhof Berlin-Friedrichstraße. The closest U-Bahn station (U6) is called Oranienburger Tor.
- The bus 147: bus stop Schumannstraße - Day Ward (Tagesklinik) bus stop Luisenstraße/Charité - Outpatient Dept. (ambulante Versorgung)
- Traffic and parking situations at Charité are not easy. Please drive here only if you really have to. However; if you have no other choice, upon arrival by car please look for a parking spot on Luisenstr (parking is permitted there for no longer than 3h free of charge). Alternatively, next to the Charité hospital tower building you will find a parking lot. Before exiting you must pay the parking fee at one of the automated parking teller machines.
