

Organization:

Jean-Paul Gaudillière
INSERM, Paris

Volker Hess
Institut für Geschichte der Medizin
Charité, Berlin

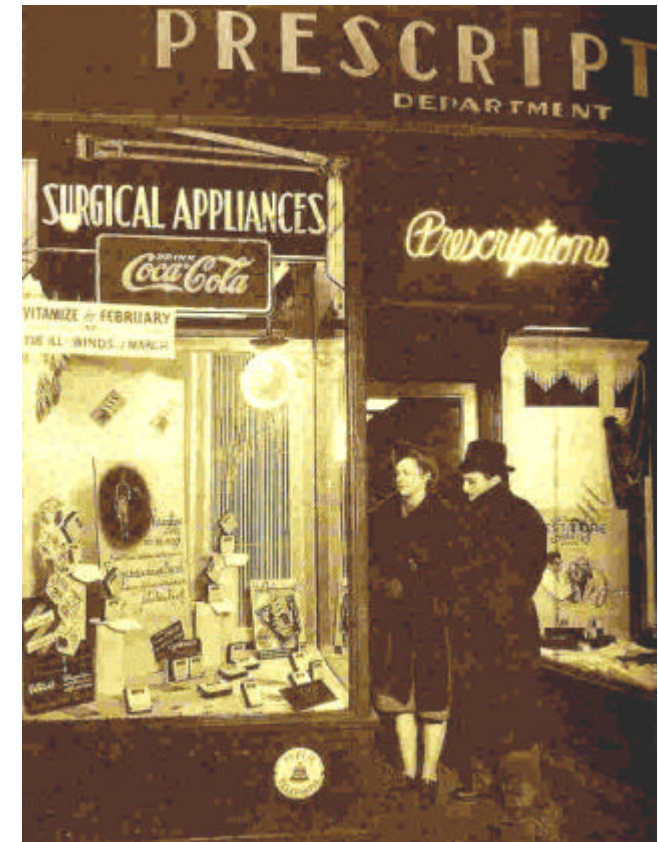

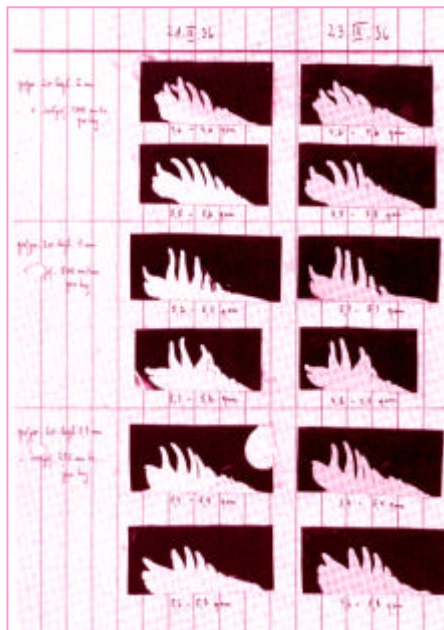

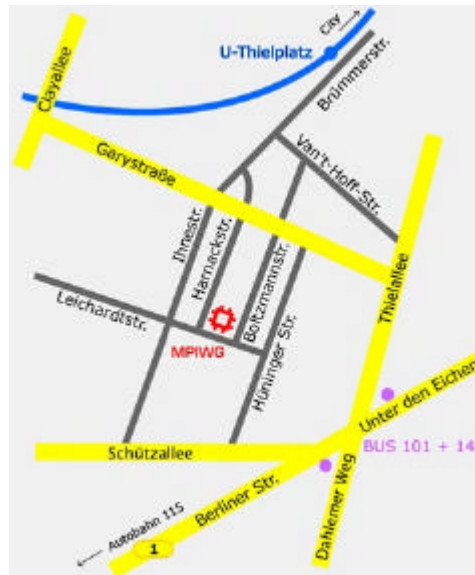

Hans-Jörg Rheinberger
Max Planck-Institut für
Wissenschaftsgeschichte,
Berlin

DRUG TRAJECTORIES V: WAYS OF REGULATING

*THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30th-
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2nd*

Address:
Max Planck Institute for the History of Science
Boltzmannstraße 22
14195 Berlin
Phone: (+49 30) 22667 -0

CONTACT:

ANTJE RADECK, MPI-WG
BOLTZMANN STR. 22
14195 BERLIN
FON: ++49 30 22667 -161
E-MAIL: radeck@mpiwg-berlin.mpg.de

VOLKER HESS
INSTITUT FÜR GESCHICHTE DER MEDI ZIN
ZIEGELSTR. 5-9
10117 BERLIN
FON:++49 30 450-529 031
FAX:++49 30 450 529901
E-MAIL: volker.hess@charite.de

Thursday, November 30th

4h00 Welcome and Introductory Remarks

Session 1 From Professional Discipline to State Control.
Chair: Londa Schiebinger

4h15 Volker Hess [Berlin]

Secrets, Bureaucracy and the Public. Drug Regulation in the early 19th Century Prussia.

5h00 Jean-Paul Gaudillière [Paris]

Ways and Places of Regulation. Plants Extracts and Hormones in 20th Century France and Germany.

5h45 Viviane Quirke [Oxford]

The Impact of World War II on Regulatory Practices

6h30 Pause

Session 2 Regulating the Fate of Diphtheria Serum.
Chair : Jean-Paul Gaudillière

7h00 Axel Hüntelmann [Berlin]

Ways of Evaluation. Therapeutic Agents between Standardization and Institutionalization.

7h30 Ulrike Kloepfel [Berlin]

Stabilizing the Diphtheria Serum in Germany and France, Regulating its Production.

8h00 Jonathan Simon [Berlin, Strasbourg]

French Serum Regulation after 1895. The Necessary Minimum and the Maximum Possible?

Friday, December 1st

Session 3 Crisis, EBM and the Transformation of Regulation: US Patterns.
Chair: Volker Hess [Berlin]

09h30 Harry Marks [Baltimore]

Making Risks Visible: The Science and Politics of Adverse Drug Reactions

10h15 John Swann [Rockville]

Obesity, Medical Practice and the Rise and Fall of Fenfluramine, Phentermine and Dexfenfluramine in the United States.

11h00 Pause

11h30 Jeremy Greene [Cambridge]

Regulating Drugs, Regulating Diseases: The Tolbutamide Crisis and the Therapeutics Indication, 1969-1984.

12h15 Donna Messner [Edinburgh]

AZT as Conceptually Pivotal to US Drug Approval: Rule-Making and Practice.

13h00 Lunch

Session 4 Patients, Risks, and Clinical Trials: Toward New Ways of Regulating?
Chair: Christian Bonah [Strasbourg]

14h30 Carsten Timmermann [Manchester]

How does a Drug become Medicine? Hexamethonium and the Treatment of High Blood Pressure.

15h15 Toine Pieters and Stephen Snelders [Amsterdam]

Ways of Regulating Sleeping Pills: Halcion between Consulting Room, Household and the Medias.

16h00 Ilana Löwy [Paris]

Treating Health Risks or Putting Women at Risk. Contemporary Debates about the Use of Drugs to Prevent Cancer

16h45 Pause

17h15 Alberto Cambrosio, Peter Keating [Montreal], Andrei Mogoutov [Paris]

Protocols, Regimens and Substances. The Socio-technical Space of Anti-Cancer Drugs.

17h45 Catherine Garnier [Montreal]

The Construction and Circulation of Knowledge at the Development Stage of Anticancer Drugs Derived from Animal and Vegetable Sources.

Saturday, December 2nd

Session 5 Markets, Innovation and Spaces of Regulation.
Chair: Hans-Jörg Rheinberger [Berlin]

09h30 Arthur Daemmerich [Philadelphia]

Innovation Cultures meet Regulatory Cultures. The Pharmaceutical Industry and National Competitiveness.

10h15 Janice Graham [Dalhousie]

Behind Closed Doors. Negotiations for the Regulatory Approval of Drugs.

11h00 Pause

11h30 Ma Eun Jeong [Ithaca]
Contested Drugs. Oriental Pharmaceuticals in South Korea.

12h15 Parvathi Iyer [Hyderabad]
The construction of Drug Quality. A Comparative Study of the Pharmaceutical Industry in the Indian and US Contexts.

13h00 Lunch

14h30 Round table discussion.

Commentators:
Stephen Hilgarner [Ithaca]
Christoph Gradmann [Oslo]
Jakob Tanner [Zurich]
Ursula Klein [Berlin]