

The Institute of Tropical Medicine and International Health,
Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin, combines out-patient health services,
Europe's largest travel clinic, laboratory and research facilities as well as the MSc program International Health

We are currently looking for a:

Coordinator, International Health

PRINCIPAL RESPONSIBILITIES include:

- Overall coordination of the MSc program International Health
- Representation of the program at the national, European and international levels including both, academic/scientific exchange and public relations
- Review, development and supervision of program contents and of advanced teaching modules
- Supervision of MSc theses
- Development of an independent research group on International Health
- Development of a research agenda, project development, and respective fund raising
- Project acquisition in the field of International Health

QUALIFICATIONS, KNOWLEDGE & EXPERIENCE:

- Degree from the health sciences, preferentially Medicine or Public Health
- International experience in advanced education and training
- Familiarity with the Bologna process, Masters and PhD programs
- Working experience in developing countries and/or development agencies is desirable
- Proven research or project management record

PERSONAL SKILLS & ATTRIBUTES:

- Fluency in English
- Excellent communication and management skills
- Team player

The position will remain posted until filled.

Please send your application to:
Prof. Dr. Gundel Harms-Zwingenberger
Institut für Tropenmedizin
Spandauer Damm 130
14050 Berlin, Germany.