

CURRICULUM VITAE:

Prof. Dr. med. Ulrich Keilholz

Acting Director, Charité Comprehensive Cancer Center, Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin/Germany

specialisation

- Hematology, Medical Oncology, Internal Medicine

Vice-president Deutscher Krebskongress 2016 (German cancer congress 2016)

career progression

2015	Appointment as Professor for Comprehensive Oncology (W3) and Chair of the Charité Comprehensive Cancer Center
2013 – 2015	Acting Director, Charité Comprehensive Cancer Center
2008 – 2013	Deputy Director, Charité Comprehensive Cancer Center
2003 – 2015	C3-Professor for Molecular and Clinical Tumor Immunology at Charité, Berlin/Germany
1998	Associate Professor of Medicine, Freie Universität Berlin/Germany (Free University Berlin)
1997 – 2013	Vice-Chair, Dept. of Medicine III (Hematology, Oncology), Charité, Berlin/Germany
1993	Venia legendi for Internal Medicine, University of Heidelberg/Germany
1993	Board certification for Hematology and Medical Oncology
1990 – 1997	Attending physician, Dept. of Medicine, Hematology, Oncology and Rheumatology, University of Heidelberg/Germany
1990	Board certification for Internal Medicine
1986	Guest scientist at the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, MD, USA, surgery and immunotherapy branches
1983 – 1990	Clinical and research training at the Department of Hematology, Oncology and Rheumatology, University Hospital of Heidelberg/Germany
1984	Doctoral degree at the Institute of Pathophysiology and Sports Medicine, University of Heidelberg/Germany
1977 – 1983	Studies of medicine, Universities of Mainz, Heidelberg, Lexington, KY, USA

Contact

Prof. Dr. med. Ulrich Keilholz
Charité Comprehensive Cancer Center
Charitéplatz 1, 10117 Berlin/Germany
phone: +49 (0)30 450564621
fax: +49 (0)30 4507564960
e-mail: Ulrich.Keilholz@charite.de