

XIV. Humanitarian Congress Berlin

Theory and Practice of Humanitarian Action

Tough Choices - Ethical Challenges in Humanitarian Action

12th and 13th October 2012 - Virchow-Klinikum Berlin

© Ton Koene

More than 70 international experts from academic as well as political and field-based backgrounds will share their experiences and reflections on humanitarian action in over 20 lectures, panel discussions and workshops.

Discussion themes include:

- Humanitarian Action in Authoritarian States
- Humanitarian Aid in Detention Centres
- Manipulation and Independence in Humanitarian Aid
- Humanitarian Aid and its Impact on War
- Working in High-risk Security Settings
- New (Social) Media and Humanitarian Issues
- Humanitarian Action for Beginners
- Sexual Violence against Men
- Water and Sanitation in Humanitarian Programmes
- Surgery in Resource-poor Settings
- Neglected Tropical Diseases
- Non-Infectious Chronic Diseases

www.humanitarian-congress-berlin.org

Kindly supported by:

